REPORT OF THE COUNCIL FOR THE YEAR ENDING JUNE 30th, 1967

THE Council has pleasure in presenting the 56th Annual Report of the Society.

Fixtures

A highlight of the Season's fixtures took place in July when, on a glorious summer evening, Her Royal Highness, Princess Alexandra, The Honorable Mrs. Angus Ogilvie, attended a concert given by Maureen Lehane, accompanied by Alexander Kelly, and Penelope Lynex with Elizabeth Hughes. The artists performed a delightful and most suitable programme for this happy occasion. Afterwards, during the refreshments, the Princess moved among the members and their guests, talking informally to many of them. We greatly appreciate the honour the Princess has done us by coming for the third time to one of the Society's concerts.

In all there have been nine fixtures at which there has been an encouraging rise in audience figures.

After the Annual General Meeting we were happy to welcome Sir Arthur Bliss, a distinguished Fellow of the Society, who gave a delightful informal talk and also presented the Cobbett Prize for Composition to Mary Chandler.

In May, Joseph Cooper presented his fascinating dramatic narrative 'The Schumann Story', brilliantly illustrated by excerpts from his music.

Christmas Party

At the Christmas Party held at the Royal College of Music the record was again broken by the large attendance. A quiz panel, consisting of Joan Kemp-Potter, Joan Trimble, James Blades and Antony Hopkins, ably chaired by Phyllis Hartnoll, entertained us with their 'off the cuff' answers to some thought-provoking questions. Lilli Malandraki, wearing Minoan costume, delighted us with songs of her native Greece, introduced and sung with much charm, accompanied by Alexa Maxwell. Finally, Antony Hopkins took charge and, assisted at the piano by Phyllis Norbrook, had us singing carols as we have never sung before. Once again the platform was graced by a very decorative Christmas Tree and beautiful flower arrangements.

Master Classes

During the year three Master Classes have been held with great success. They were taken by Max Rostal, Léon Goossens and Joan Cross respectively. All who attended will agree that we learnt a tremendous lot from the instruction given with such charm and tact by these great artists.

Ivimey Concerts

Five Ivimey Concerts have been given at which twenty-two artists have appeared. For the second year in succession we made a special feature of the one Ivimey Concert held in the summer. This year we were particularly interested in a first performance of Mary Chandler's Wind Trio which won the W. W. Cobbett Prize, and a second performance of a string trio by Beryl Price.

Auditions

Three auditions have been held, the panel consisting of Rosemary Brown, Phyllis Hartnoll, Kathleen Hurran, Dilys Orpen, Jean Stewart, Elizabeth Werry, the Chairman and the Hon. Secretary. As a result several of these artists have been heard at Ivimey Concerts and Fixtures.

Opera Bookings

The opera bookings project has proved very successful; members and their friends have been able to attend several performances at Covent Garden and Sadlers' Wells. The tickets offered at greatly reduced prices were eagerly snapped up.

The Council's Congratulations

We wish to record our congratulations to one of our Fellows, Keith Falkner, Director of the Royal College of Music, on being awarded a Knighthood. We are also pleased to note that Freda Parry has been awarded the O.B.E. for her services to music. An Honorary Life Membership of this Society has been given to the well-known harpist Maria Korchinska.

The Club Féminin International in Paris, of which the Society is the British Member, recently offered a prize for French Verse written by poets whose mother tongue was other than French. We are very proud that one of our Council Members, Phyllis Hartnoll, won the second prize and was warmly congratulated when she went to Paris to receive the award.

Deaths

It was with regret that we received news of the following deaths: Mrs. Bernard, an Honorary Vice-President, and Sylvia York Bowen.

Membership

We now have 7 Fellows and 28 Associates, in addition to our membership of 473, which is, to the best of our knowledge, the biggest number ever achieved by the Society. 60 new members have joined and there have been 29 resignations.

Donations

We gratefully acknowledge donations from Emily Collins Cox, Alexa Maxwell, Sylvia Mitchell and Seymour Whinyates.

Owing to professional commitments, Mabel Lovering regretfully retired from the Council before the end of her term of office. Accordingly the Council co-opted Beryl Price in her place.

The Council's Thanks

We wish to thank the many people who have given so much of their time to help the Society: our hosts and hostesses who lent their drawing rooms for Ivimey Concerts, Master Classes and Auditions—Miss Carol Denman, Dr. and Mrs. Feldman, Mr. and Mrs. Jaquet, Mr. and Mrs. Marlow, Mr. and Mrs. Norman Ritchie and Mr. and Mrs. Harry Stubbs; our President, Chairman, Hon. Treasurer and Assistant Secretary who have, if possible, put in even more time than usual, and with excellent results; Dora Hanes and Hope Hambourg who arrange the flowers so beautifully; Kathleen Hurran for organising the Ivimey Concerts; Elizabeth Werry who is in charge of the auditions; Pauline Forrest and Janet Eggleden who do valuable work on the publicity side; Rosemary Brown for the success of the Opera Bookings; Barbara Bendixson for continuing to look after the catering so splendidly and finally the Arts Council for the use of the Great Drawing Room, the Royal Society of Musicians of Great Britain for the use of their office at Stratford Place, and the Director of the Royal College of Music for lending us the Concert Hall for our Christmas Party.

The President

Nancy Evans, who as President has done outstanding work during her term of office, feels that for various reasons the time has come to retire. This is understandable as she has moved further from London and is not able to come up so often. It is with great reluctance that we are letting her go. She takes with her our grateful thanks and sincere good wishes for the future and has agreed to be one of our Honorary Vice-Presidents.

We are quite amazingly fortunate in having as her successor a musician widely known for her active interest in many musical projects. We extend a very warm welcome to Marion, Countess of Harewood and look forward to the Society making further progress under her aegis.

REPORT OF THE HONORARY TREASURER AT THE ANNUAL GENERAL MEETING ON 23rd OCTOBER, 1967

It is my pleasure to report on the finances of the Society for the year ended 30th June, 1967.

From the Income and Expenditure Account it will be seen that the Society's expenditure exceeded income by £35 13s. 5d. This was unavoidable in view of our increased activity, the inauguration of Master Classes, which are now showing a surplus, and the rise in postal and telephone charges during the year.

Despite the larger membership, subscription receipts have not increased, since many of our new members have joined the Society at the student rate of 15/-.

Concert expenses are lower, but our recitals are still by no means self-supporting. However, by raising the cost of Christmas Party tickets to 12/6 this year, it is hoped that the party expenses will be fully covered.

Change in Secretaryship

On the advice of the Finance Committee, Marjorie Gleed has been designated Honorary Secretary from the 30th June, 1967 for administrative reasons.

We are indeed fortunate that Barbara Lane, who has done such splendid work as Honorary Secretary for the past two years, remains on the Council and that we shall continue to have the benefit of her willing and able help.

The programme included new compositions by two of our members—Mary Chandler and Beryl Price.

Compositions

Composers and performers are invited to send works suitable for future Concerts to the Office.

Auditions

Auditions are held three times a year for the purpose of hearing those members who wish to perform at an Ivimey Concert or a Fixture, and whose work is not already known to the Council.

Any member may ask to be heard, and should apply to Miss Elizabeth Werry (TOW 5014) or to Mrs. Gleed at the Office (629 6137). When possible, a public performance will be heard in lieu of an audition if tickets are provided and if the concert is reasonably central.

Ivimey Concerts

It is hoped to hold six of these informal concerts in the coming year. All performing members who have had an audition within the past two years, or whose work is already known to the Council, are invited to apply to Miss Kathleen Hurran (WES 1469), or to Mrs. Gleed at the Office (629 6137). Many artists find these concerts helpful in trying out groups for the B.B.C., etc., or for Wigmore Hall recitals. Ivimey Concerts are announced at each Fixture, and members who wish to receive written notices should apply to Miss Hurran for the special-sized envelopes to be self-addressed, stamped and returned to her.
